New Poor People's Campaign Event

On Sunday, January 19, PHCC held a special service to commemorate the birthday of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. On Monday, January 20, we hosted the AR Poor People's Campaign for a pre-screening of the film, "We Cried Power," a documentary about the New Poor People's Campaign. The NPPC is under the leadership of Disciples minister, Rev. Dr. William Barber and co-chair, Rev. Dr. Liz Theoharris, a Presbyterian minister. After the film, members and guests enjoyed refreshments in Hunter Hall.

Mardi Gras Comes Early to PHCC

Sunday, February 23 is the date for our next quarterly luncheon. This is the last Sunday before Lent. We will celebrate Mardi Gras with a special meal prepared by Sharon Marshall. She's become a celebrated chef among our veteran guests. Her beans and cornbread are legendary.

The Saints will be marching with the PHCC Musicians. Recording artist, MarQuis Hunt, will be our guest musician for the 10:30 a.m. worship service.

After service, we will fellowship and feast in Hunter Hall. Rumor has it that there will be chicken and waffles, jambalaya (a specialty of Sharon's) and a few other surprise dishes that I am not at liberty to divulge.

You don't want to miss out on our last party before Lent begins. Come and bring a friend.

Church Women United

The next gathering of Church Women United (CWU) will be on Friday, March 6 at Pulaski Heights United Methodist Church. Registration begins at 9:30 a.m. The service begins at 10:00 a.m. All are welcome.
